

The World's Original Marmalade Awards & Festival at Dalemain 2015

'Celebrating Ten Golden Years, a Renaissance in Marmalade Making & Raising Money for Charity'

LOCAL MARMALADE MAKER IS TOASTING SUCCESS WITH AWARD WINNING MARMALADE

Local preserves company, Classic Marmalades, is toasting business success thanks to winning a prestigious food award at this year's 10th Anniversary Marmalade Awards Celebrations at Dalemain. They really are a world champion marmalade maker and are now able to proudly carry the award-winning roundel on their jars.

Classic Marmalades and Jams, based in Kalk Bay has just scooped a Silver award in the 10th World's Original Marmalade Awards. Classic Marmalades won one of the marmalade world's most prestigious accolades for its Lime, Lemon and Ginger Marmalade which scored high marks for its appearance, colour, consistency, aroma and flavour.

The Awards took place at Dalemain in Cumbria on 28 February & 1 March 2015 and kicked off National Marmalade Week (28 -7 March 2015).

Record entries were received for the 10th Anniversary of this prestigious event with over 2,600 jars of marmalade from as far afield as Australia, India, Denmark, Japan, USA and New Zealand. Entries were judged by a prestigious panel of marmalade experts who were once again amazed by the standard of the marmalades entered.

The World's Original Marmalade Awards & Festival boasts the sponsorship backing of some of the most famous names in marmalade – Paddington, Mackays, and Fortnum & Mason.
